Property Description

Set on a generous private plot in La Quinta, this newly renovated modern Mediterranean residence blends striking architecture with refined interiors designed by Soledad Merchant. The main living area is bright and open, defined by floor-to-ceiling glass, custom shelving, and a seamless connection to the outdoor spaces. A thoughtfully arranged dining area and lounge create a setting that is both practical for everyday living and elegant for entertaining. The kitchen is a standout feature, designed with clean lines, premium materials, a large central island, and integrated appliances, along with ample concealed storage and direct access to the terraces and pool—encouraging both functionality and social interaction.

The home offers five beautifully designed bedrooms, including a private primary suite on the upper level with direct terrace access and sweeping coastal views. Each room follows a consistent design language of neutral tones, bespoke carpentry, and carefully considered lighting. The upper floor opens onto expansive outdoor areas that fully embrace the panoramic setting. On the lower level, a dedicated entertainment space enhances the lifestyle offering, complete with a home gym, sauna, entertainment room, and a climate-controlled wine bodega. Outside, landscaped gardens frame multiple seating and dining areas alongside a striking private pool, all just minutes from golf courses, international schools, and the amenities of Nueva Andalucía and Marbella.
